18 October 2016

Fairway Divestment Update

US-focused oil and gas producer, Target Energy Limited (“Target”) provides the following update:

- Fairway Divestment

Earlier in the year Target Energy Limited engaged global investment bank Canaccord Genuity (“Canaccord”) as adviser to the divestment of the Fairway Project (“Fairway”) in the Permian Basin, Texas. The Fairway properties were later included in a larger combined package, improving the overall marketability of the aggregated properties.

Bids for the combined package were due on 7 October 2016. While Canaccord and the divesting partners have since agreed to extend the bidding process for a further 4 weeks in order to attract additional bids, a number of bids have been received, including a cash offer for all properties in the package. The offer was accompanied by a Letter of Intent and remains subject to the bidder securing suitable finance and the receipt of any required regulatory approvals. The bidder, a private Texas-based firm, is continuing its due diligence program while Canaccord and the divesting parties review the bid in detail.

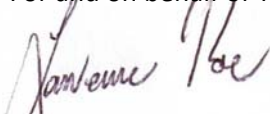

While this process is underway and until such time as the bidder and the divesting partners successfully conclude the drafting of a Purchase and Sale Agreement (PSA), the partners will continue to solicit offers from additional interested parties. No offer has been accepted by Target and its divesting partners at this stage.

Target’s Managing Director, Laurence Roe, commented: “We are pleased with the progress so far, but as always there is more work to be done. In the coming days, Target expects to review the bid with our partners and we will seek confirmation as soon as possible that the bidder’s financing is in place.

“We will advise the market as these matters develop.”
